and 0. I. Kruger in the suggestion that it would be best to investigate the contents of the proposed charter as to the good it might do for the city before taking action to condemn it.

Mr. Kruger offered a motion which would provide for a committee of 15 to investigate the printed draft of the charter and report to a special meeting of the council. This motion was offered as a substitute to the motion of Mr. Page to suspend the rules for immediate consideration of the charter bill. The Page motion was carried.

Charles W. Miller, as representative of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, fire and police commissioner, spoke in opposition to the charter without a referendum.

Dr. C. E. Duvall spoke against the measure without prior referendum, representing the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen lodge No. 47. He declayed that his organization was prepared to attack the passage of the charter bill in Nashville. Putnam laye, E. H. Beasiey and W. L. Lott appeared as joint delegates with Dr. Duvall.

A committee from the council was appointed to present the informal referendum plan, previously outlined, to the committee of 100. This was done on the initiative of Lehman Johnson, who suggested a motion for adoption of the informal referendum.

A resolution recording the Trades and Lahor Council as approving bend tissue adequate for relief of the crowded continuous of the schools was adopted, upon the request of a delegation from the Parent-Teacher association. The meton was introduced by Mr. Kruger.

It was also decided to adopt a resolution protesting against the repeal of the act abolishing the convict lease system.

SUSPECT ARRESTED IN EDITH CAVELL TRAGEDY

PARIS, Feb. 14—French military authorities now hold, on a charge of dealing with the enemy a man named Krein, who is alleged to have played a leading role in the tragedy in which Miss Eddith Cavell lost her life.

A report made on Krein by Police Inspector Cholet states the man was in fall at St. Quentin at the beginning of the war. He was released by the Germans and went to the mansion of Prince and Princess Croy, in Belgium, where he denounced the prince and princess as having aided French war prisoners to escape. As a result the princess was condemned to 10 years' imprisonment at hard labor.

Krein is said to have then gone to Brussels, where he went into Miss Cavell's hospital service and helped to work up' the case against her

In Seeking Review of Cases Gen. Ansell Tells of Man Who Got Forty Years When He Took 28-Day Leave.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14-Instances of evere sentences imposed by courts-nartial upon soldiers found guilty of minor offenses were recited before the senate military committee today by Brig.-Gen. Samuel T. Ansell, acting judge-advocate-general, who appeared to urge enactment of a law authorizing reviews of court-martial sentences by the judge-advocate.

Gen. Ansell was asked by members of the committee why it was that many conscientious objectors had been disharged from the army while enlisted ind selected service men were required to remain in camps, but he asked to be excused from answering. Chairman Chamberlain later announced that Sectorary Baker would be called for questioning on this subject.

In discussing courts-martial cases, Gen. Ansell told the committee that personally he favored the pending Chamberlain bill granting broad power of review in court-martial cases, but and that generally war department officials opposed the provisions of the measure. Frice to the war, he said.

Citing cases of what he characterzed as unusually severe sentences imposed by court-martial, Gen. Ansell told of a solder who was sentenced to 40 cars at hard labor and dishonorable lischarge for absenting himself without leave from camp for 28 days. The sentence was later reduced to 10 years, be said.

National Colors For Automobiles Hits Mike Kehoe

About every other time the phones ring at Memphis police headquarters and the detective bureau it is to report the loss of an automobile that has been stolen. In nearly every instance it is a case of the machine being used without permission of the owners by nocturnal escapades.

A merchant called the Central office Priday and in a calm voice told of his automobile having been stolen. "When:" was the initial query of Capt. Mike Kehoe.

"Oh, some time within the past fewdays."

"Oh, some time within the large days."

"All right, sir," returned Capt Kehee. "Which one of your ranches was it stolen from, and was if your red or your white or your blue one."

"Well er-now let me see. Let's see, now. Oh, it was the smallest one of my green roadsters."

"We'll keep an eye or two out for it," concluded Capt. Kehee. "I see you are a stickler for the national colors."

The congregation of the First Presbyterian church lost one of its most beloved and a life-long member Wednesday when Mrs. Flora R. McDavitt succumbed to a brief Hiness. Mrs. McDavitt died in Wichtia. Kan., at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Hoshall, with whom she had made her home for the past year.

Until her departure from Memphis a few years ago Mrs. McDavitt had been a life-long resident of Memphis. Her enviable disposition and Christian character had won her a host of friends, especially among the young people, of whom she was very fond, particularly especially among the young people, o whom she was very fond, particularly
